

The Waldwick Band Continues Its Free Concerts

The Waldwick Band continues its 2016-2017 Winter Season with a concert on Sunday afternoon, March 12th at The Village School in Waldwick. The concert, featuring saxophonist Lew Archer, will begin at 2:30 p.m. The Village School is located at 100 West Prospect Street in Waldwick, close to the Waldwick High School athletic field, and offers a fine auditorium with theater style seating for concert attendees. There is no admission charge for the concert.

Lewis Archer will be the featured instrumentalist. The principal saxophonist with the Waldwick Band, Mr. Archer studied with the noted saxophone teacher Paul Cohen and has performed with the Ridgewood Concert Band, the Rutherford Band and the Teaneck Summer Band. The soloist has appeared as a featured player on numerous earlier occasions with the band soloing on the soprano, alto, tenor and baritone saxophones. For this concert he will perform The Theme from Schindler's List by John Williams.

The band will be under the baton of music director Edmund A. Moderacki who will open the concert with its 2016-2017 signature piece, Seventy-six Trombones by Meredith Wilson as arranged by Leroy Anderson. Moderacki will conduct the ensemble in Carl Maria von Weber's Invitation to the Dance and The Overture to Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss Jr. Also on the program will be selections from Pertshire Majesty by Samuel R. Hazo, The Universal Judgement by de Nardis, Minor Alterations by David Lovrein and selections from the long running off Broadway show The Fantastics.

Blue Moon Mexican Café has agreed to donate 20% of the bill for eat-in or take-out meals for anyone who presents a special coupon on March 12 or 13 at its Englewood, Woodcliff Lake, and Wyckoff locations. These coupons will be available at the concert. They may also be downloaded at the band's website at <http://waldwickband.org/donations.html>

The remaining concert in the Waldwick Band's winter series is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, April 30th. Information on all the activities of the band is available at www.waldwickband.org.
